Why Attend a RESO Conference? Workgroups, Networking + More

RESO Conferences in 2019 include the RESO Spring Technology Summit in Boise, ID at the Boise Centre April 29-May 2, and the RESO Fall Conference in St. Louis, MO at the Hilton St. Louis at the Ballpark, September 9-12. For Real Estate Brokerages, MLSs, MLS Technology Partners and Real Estate tech firms, RESO Conferences have become must attend events!

What do Technology Partners & Firms get out of attending?

Face-to-face meetings in one place – Key executives and technical leads attend RESO Conferences from top MLS firms, leading MLS Technology Partners, Brokerages and the hottest real estate tech firms that interact with listing data. Share your issues, concerns, ideas and business needs in face-to-face meetings at RESO Conferences, Spring or Fall.

Workgroups give you a seat at the table – Technology Partners and Firms can help shape the future of new standards by having a seat at the table. Workgroups meet at RESO Conferences, allowing you to connect with MLS customers face-to-face to help create new standards that help solve pressing industry problems and challenges.

Standards are vital – With more than 1,000 different real estate data sources, most of them MLSs, standardization gets everyone on the same page. It is not good enough to only have the Associations and MLSs adopt the RESO standards but for the industry to thrive all players must adopt and implement standards.

Get an inside look at what's coming next – You'll learn at RESO conferences about new standards (and trends they create) before they are ever released, often from MLSs and your peers. RESO Conferences offers insight you won't find at other real estate meetings.

Access to the best minds in the business – RESO Conferences attract the brightest and the best minds in the business, giving you exceptional networking opportunities that you won't find at most real estate conferences because of RESO Conferences are more intimate, fueling more one-on-one conversations.

Remarkably affordable – You can register for both RESO Conferences for the price of registration at just one typical major industry conference.

What makes a RESO Conference different?

Size – While the number of attendees has grown rapidly over the years, total RESO Conference attendance is fewer than 500 professionals. These conferences feel more intimate, are easier to navigate and facilitate more social interaction.

Focus: Data standards are king at a RESO Conferences as they impact every facet of the real estate industry. This focus makes it easier for Technology Partners and Firms to take away actionable items to help them work with their MLS clients.

On-site Certification – RESO Conferences provide opportunities for Certification on-site. You can ask questions, meet with your industry customers, scout potential tech solutions and adopt RESO standards all at a Conference!

Real world problems, solutions shared – RESO Conferences don't ask presenters to sugar coat their presentations: We like presenters who roll up their sleeves, show what's under the hood, take all the hard questions and share solutions.
